Hearing Set for Small Business Owners to Comment About Excessive Federal Regulatory Enforcement

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – Small business owners, community leaders and representatives of trade associations concerned about excessive enforcement of federal rules can voice their complaints at a U.S. Small Business Administration Regulatory Fairness Board Hearing in San Francisco on Wednesday, January 18, from 8:30 a.m. to noon.

The hearing will be held at the SBA Entrepreneur Center, 455 Market St., 6th floor, San Francisco.

Barry Gold and Kimberly King, who are local members of SBA's Region IX Regulatory Fairness Board, and representatives of federal regulatory agencies will hear comments and complaints about regulatory enforcement and compliance.

This forum offers small business owners a chance to express their concerns about federal compliance practices in SBA's San Francisco District area.

Comments and complaints presented during the hearing will be directed to the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This information will also be shared with federal officials in the Ombudsman's annual report to Congress, and with managers of federal regulatory agencies to assist them with their enforcement actions.

The National Ombudsman's authority to respond to comments on compliance issues is limited to federal regulatory enforcement matters and does not include concerns about obtaining federal contracts, regulations in general, or securing guaranteed loans.

The San Francisco hearing is open to the public. Those wishing to testify should contact Gary Marshall at (415) 744-6771, or by email at gary.marshall@sba.gov before the hearing. Should a small business owner or representative be unable to attend, written testimony may be sent in advance of the hearing to be included in the public record.
